

Sue Smith at the Fauquier Family Shelter is down to just one tutor. Does anyone have any interest in coming once a week, on Mondays or Thursdays, from 4 – 5 pm, to provide tutoring for the children of the Shelter? It is a school term commitment as the same person, or even better a couple, teaches the same day from September through May. Maybe a local college student. This gives the children some sense of routine and stability. All school age children attend the class so it may be Kindergarten through high school. No professional teaching qualifications are needed to volunteer, just the desire to help a child with their homework and be there sometimes to just ask “how was your day?” Let the office know!

To be family we must be present in each other's lives. Fall is here, and we are planning activities to bring us together in fun and fellowship! What great opportunities to bring a friend or two!

Would you like to go to the Bible Museum in DC? We have over 30 people signed up already— looks like we will take a busload of folks . Sign up at the foyer table if you are interested— then we will get available dates. Friends and neighbors also welcome!

December 2nd is Parents' Night Out! From 4-8 we will have food, crafts, movies, and games for your children so that you can have a little time to eat out, shop, etc. Sign up today! If you would like to help with childcare, see Becca—the Kolodners are now unable to help due to Bob's father's funeral.

Just one more week to contribute to a gift card for Daniel Twentey's son, and Chantal Lotane Proffitt's daughter! We want to help them celebrate these wonderful additions to their lives. It is great to see how our church family is growing as the children that were raised here now have children of their own. See Cathy Ryon or Nancy Kolodner to give.

Angel Tree time is almost here. We will be helping 4 families this year. Please be praying about how you can participate in providing clothes, necessities, and toys to these families. Signups will begin on November 26th and gifts will be due on December 10th.

If you need to contact an elder, you can email them any time at wcelders@mywccoc.org.
