

Sue Smith at the Fauquier Family Shelter is down to just two tutors, and one is struggling to make it work. Does anyone have any interest in coming once a week, on Mondays or Thursdays, from 4 – 5 pm, to provide tutoring for the children of the Shelter? It is a school term commitment as the same person, or even better a couple, teaches the same day from September through May. Maybe a local college student. This gives the children some sense of routine and stability. All school age children attend the class so it may be Kindergarten through high school. No professional teaching qualifications are needed to volunteer, just the desire to help a child with their homework and be there sometimes to just ask “how was your day?” Let the office know!

To be family we must be present in each other's lives. Fall is here, and we are planning activities to bring us together in fun and fellowship! What great opportunities to bring a friend or two!

This Saturday, November 11th, is a 'twofer'! Men's breakfast will meet at 9 for food, fellowship, and service. Everyone is invited to join us from 6:30-9:30 for Family Night– games, snacks, and fellowship for 'kids' of all ages. Bring friends, food, and your favorite games!

Would you like to go to the Bible Museum in DC? If there is interest, we will take a busload of folks. Sign up at the foyer table if you are interested– then we will get available dates. Friends and neighbors also welcome!

December 2nd is Parents' Night Out! From 4-8 we will have food, crafts, movies, and games for your children so that you can have a little time to eat out, shop, etc. Sign up today! If you would like to help with childcare, see Becca or Nancy.

Daniel Twentey has a son, and Chantal Lotane Proffitt has a daughter! We want to help them celebrate these wonderful additions to their lives. It is great to see how our church family is growing as the children that were raised here now have children of their own. We'll be taking contributions to a gift certificate for either of these two new families for a few more weeks. See Cathy Ryon or Nancy Kolodner to give.

Ministry Coordinators:

There will be an inaugural meeting with the elders on November 12th after worship – lunch will be provided. Please RSVP to the church office.
