FAMILY PHOTO TIME!

Is it a challenge for you to match names to the faces you see at church once a week? Are you curious to know who in this church family might live near you? The Family & Friends Photo bulletin board could be a great source for improving our connections— but it is sadly out of date. Kelly Marcum has volunteered to take new photographs beginning in February. You may sign up for a particular Sunday and meet her after service in the library with your best smile. The photos will display names and neighborhoods.
